Welcome

Hello to all our valued patrons,

Let me introduce myself. My name is Michael Courtney and I am proud to say I am the new manager of the Riverhead Theatre.

I have been in the theatre industry for 36 years and have been bringing shows to the Riverhead since it opened. After a life touring the UK and Europe, I am excited to come to work in this wonderful venue.

Alongside a varied professional season of shows, the Louth Playgoers Society continues to offer excellent productions all brought to you by a fine group of volunteers. We pride ourselves in offering a varied programme of events which, going forward, we will only continue to expand and develop. The Riverhead will continue to remain at the forefront of community engagements with craft fairs, open days and lots more exciting events for OUR community.

This year we are launching what we hope will be an annual "Search for a Star" talent competition. It will be open to residents of Lincolnshire and kindly sponsored by our good friends at NT Shaw of Louth. We kick off our season with the ever successful pantomime: this year you can enjoy "Snow White & the Seven Dwarves".

So, whether it's a laugh you're after or a great concert, we have a little of everything here at the Riverhead.

We look forward to seeing you here!

Romeo & Juliet

Box Clever Theatre sets the stage for an ageless narrative, re-envisioned with contemporary flair. Amidst the backdrop of Verona, the saga of Romeo and Juliet unfolds, a poignant embodiment of young love ensnared in the web of familial discord.

The adaptation fully realises the characters of the lovers and brings to life their world: the sound, heat and colour of Verona, the dark threat of the feud between their families and the ever-increasing speed at which events hurry the lovers to their inevitable doom. It also, through the inclusion of the Narrator ensures that Romeo and Juliet themselves do not remain literary creations distant from the 21st century.

Tickets: £13.50, Under 18s £6

3 Day Project: 12th, 13th, 14th February, 10.30am - 16.30pm

Clever Creatives

An opportunity to join with professional actors of the Box Clever Theatre Company to help make and present a brand new, short piece of theatre from scratch, inspired by one of the Company's current productions on tour – MACBETH.

Be part of the Box Clever team to help write the storyline of the new theatre piece; to decide the characters; to write the dialogue; to rehearse and to perform. At the start of day 1, we have nothing. At the end of day 3, we have a finished piece to which friends and family can be invited.

No experience is necessary, just an interest in drama, in having fun, in meeting other like-minded people and in learning more about how theatre is made.

Tickets: £10 in total for all 3 Days!

Classic 1960s musical starring Julie Andrews and Christopher Plummer. Former nun Maria (Andrews) becomes the governess for a family of seven children who live in the shadow of their domineering and repressed widower father Captain Von Trapp (Plummer). Along with the required discipline Maria brings love, music and excitement into the children's lives and also eventually begins to have an effect on their father. But just when things are looking up, the rise of Nazism and the threat of the coming war darkens all their futures. The cast also includes Charmian Carr, Nicholas Hammond and Eleanor Parker.

This well known 1960s classic starring Julie Andrews and Christopher Plummer is familiar to many of us. The film and, indeed the songs, make up many of our childhood memories. Come and join in with the Von Trapp family singers as we raise our voices in these beloved tunes. ### Shadowing Hank presented by Justin Daish

Justin Daish's Hank Marvin extravaganza returns to the Riverhead Theatre with a fresh, new show.

Presented with a sparkling production, relaxed humour and polished vocals, Justin's visual similarity to Hank Marvin is not the only likeness in this show; his famously accurate guitar sound has seen him share the stage with The Shadows' Bruce Welch, Jet Harris, and his dear late friend Brian 'Licorice' Locking.

Featuring The Shadows' greatest hits, including 'Apache', 'Wonderful Land', 'Foot Tapper' and 'Cavatina', plus music that Hank Marvin has recorded and performed over a record-breaking 60-year career, Shadowing Hank captures the magic of the great man's live shows.

Shadowing Hank certainly has a claim to the title 'biggest small show in the world'. Come and see why, and join in this celebration of the music of one of the UK's greatest-ever guitarists. You'll be doing the Shadows Walk into the night, and humming the famous tunes long after you leave the theatre!

MAYBE DICK

By John Hewer

Based on the novel 'Moby-Dick'

by Herman Melville

Directed by Bruce Knight

Herman Melville's classic tale of revenge and retribution is retold in this inventive, comic retelling on the high seas from the company behind 'Just Like That! The Tommy Cooper Show' and 'Dracula! One Bloody Fang After Another'.

Nantucket, 1841. Ishmael signs on to the Pequod, and witnesses the perils of nature, obsession, punning and physical comedy, as Captain Ahab conducts a reckless pursuit of the savage white whale, Moby Dick.

All plot will be lampooned. All jokes will be harpooned.

Alfie Moore: A Face for Radio

Somewhere in a parallel universe little Alfie's natural comedic performance skills were recognised by his doting parents who encouraged and developed his blossoming talent. After several years as a stage school brat Alfie's angelic face was launched on stage and screen and the rest is history.

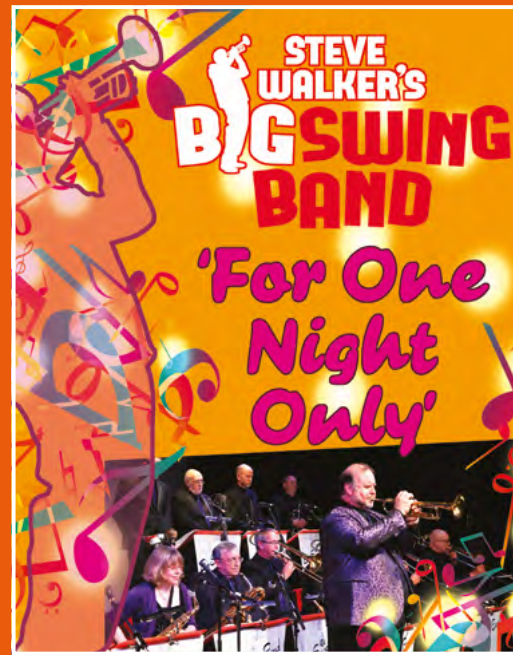

Meanwhile, in this universe Alfie Moore was told to stop messing about in class before being 'encouraged' into the grinding, grimy world of an apprenticeship in the Sheffield steelworks. When recession hit he traded steel for copper by joining Humberside Police.

Thirty years of shift-work, initially in the Sheffield steelworks and then as a copper on the beat (where he was punched in the face quite a lot), has left him with 'a face for radio'. A face not so much 'lived in' as inhabited by a settlement of squatters with little regard to property maintenance and repair.

In his 40s a surprising career shift turned middle-aged Alfie from street cop to BBC radio star. But when TV fame beckoned could he grasp it or was he past it?

This new production, directed by Tony Bannister and conducted by Alex Carpenter will bring the opera to life with NewLOG's usual flair, set in the era of Nelson and Trafalgar and including many of the most popular songs in the canon, including 'I'm called Little Buttercup', 'Never mind the why and wherefore' and 'He is an Englishman'. ### The Sounds of Simon perform The Music of Paul Simon and Simon and Garfunkel

The Sounds of Simon is a tribute to the wonderful music of Paul Simon and Art Garfunkel, through the years as Simon and Garfunkel, to the successes of both their solo careers.

Paul and Art are played to perfection, bringing in elements of their famously fractious relationship, as well as replicating the beautiful harmonies flawlessly.

With video clips, stories, and memories from the last 50+ years, this is a wonderful show filled with excellent music, nostalgia, and a genuine love for some great musicians.

This is the UK's longest running tribute to Paul Simon and Art Garfunkel. Come and see why!
